

Specific role of CSC in-house career guidance facilitator

Understanding the students' background and context

To understand the socio-economic, academic and non-academic background of the student.

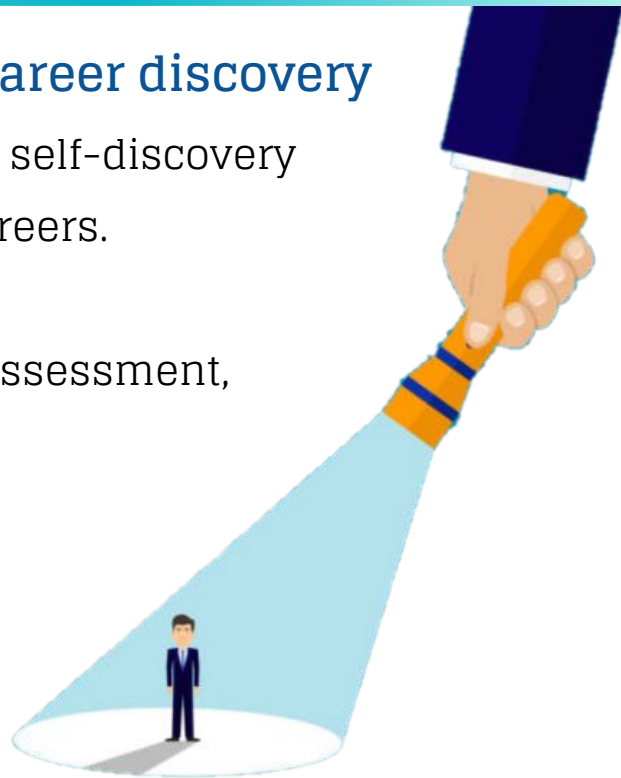

Specific role of CSC in-house career guidance facilitator

Enabling the process of self discovery and career discovery

To be able to take the student through the process of self-discovery on the LMC platform and recommend the suitable careers.

Understand the relation between the psychometric assessment, interests, skills and the 3 H's to be able to suggest age appropriate career alternatives to the student.

Stream selection, subject combinations and college admission guidance

Provide guidance in subject selection, college and course selection from Grade 8 to 12.

Recommend one on one counselling

To be able to recommend one-on-one counselling sessions, learning modules and means to approach different careers.

