

(ii) Understanding Internet

What is Internet?

Ans It is a global network of computers that millions of computers world wide.

- It allows people to communicate and exchange information or data with people all around the world.
- It helps in communication, Job, Job Searches, Finding books and study material, Health, Shop, Travel, Shopping.

Types of Internet connection:-

- 1) Dial up connection
- 2) Integrated Services Digital Network (ISDN)
- 3) Direct Internet access
- 4) Digital Subscriber Line (DSL)

World wide web:-

or in 2G, 3G, and 4G stand for "Generation"

The world wide web or 'the web' is a subset of the Internet and not its synonym.

SIM = Subscriber Identity Module

The web consist of pages that can be accessed using a web browser.

WWAN = wireless wide area network.

Components of www

- 1) web browser
- 2) web page
- 3) web site
- 4) web Address
- 5) web Server

In 1990 - first Browser was created by W3C director - Tim Berners-Lee

1992 - Lynx was developed. It was text-based browser. It is used to view only the text and not the graphics.

1993 - Mosaic was developed. It was the first browser to allow images and text to be viewed. It became very popular.

1994 - Netscape Navigator was developed.

1995 - Internet Explorer was developed by Microsoft.

1995 - Windows XP. Released as a series of graphical web browsers. Developed by Microsoft.

1996 - Opera started as a research product in 1994 that finally

S later

2003 -)

2004 -) m
- x

2008 -)

2011 -)

2015 -)

finally went to public two year
- 5 dates.

2003 i) Apple's Safari browser

2004 i) Mozilla & launched Firefox
- x.

2008 i) Google Chrome

2011 i) Opera Mini

2015 i) Microsoft Edge