

All program modules are provided to the student in e-learning mode and can be done in a self-paced manner;

Video content is available in most of the 22 Indian languages. At any time student can select the required language audio.

All videos are structured in such a way that the student can understand without the need for a local subject faculty;

Video audio script and timed-script available for download;

Do-it-yourself Assignments;

Presentation Slide document available for download for later reading;

Instruction sheet for downloading and installing required Open Source Software;

Post your Question, view of existing questions posted by other students on the module and faculty replies.